A MEETING of griffin aubscribers was heldin the Hongkong Botel this afternoon. Mr H. W. Dick was called to the chair. any address. In these Catalogues the Mr Hough said he had received a letter Seeds are Marginally Numbered in English from the Horse Bazzar asking if any subscription griffins were wanted for the coming races. If so, they wanted to creek orders as soon as possible. At present he had 23 solual subscribers. Four or five more were donotini, and he had The German Contract Packet Preussen will Orders from one person, of from $5 to $10, no doubt they would join later on. Mr. Fraser Smith asked if the Horse Bazant would supply on last year's terms and what races would be set spart for subscription griffins. Mr Hough said he had no authority to state that the Bazane would: supply griffins on the same terms as last year. He had had some difficulty in getting subscriptions and was not in a A high class fertilizer for pot plants and position to treat for griffing until he for use in the garden generally : it supplies consulted with the subscribers. He had not much doubt but what the Horse Bassar would supply on the same terms. He had no authority to state what races would be set aside for subscription. Sold in Time containing 181b each ... $1150. griffing, but going on wind boouted at last Bags ,, 281b ,, ... 84.00, meeting he thought he was right in stating that subscribers would have every consideration and the usual number of races would be set saide for them. Mr Smith proposed an adjournment for a week, in order that terms might be ascertained from Shanghai. and some authority obtained from the Stewards, to state the races would be on similar lines as last year. There were no Stewards present, which showed he said, the intense interest they took in sport generally. Mr. Hough took upon himself from conversation he had had with the Stewards to say that if griffins were subscribed for the races would be on the lines of last year. The Chairman said there was every reason the griffine should be ordered as early as possible. The Stewards for next meeting: were elected later on and the present Stewards could not fix the races. The last griffios were a ragged lot, and it would be well if they could get a man like Me Tripp to get posice, shroff them, and send the best to Hongkong. Mr Hongh said there was a great difficulty in putting: a thing of that kind through On average there were not more then suchta Garden Villas, Hongkew, ALFRED SANUE recers out of 600 or 700 griffing during the year. A private individual would have great difficulty in undertaking the order and they might have to pay dear for the ponies. No one was nearly so well able to fulfil the order as the Bazzan. THE CENSUS. To the Editor of the 'CHINA MAIL. Hongkong, Aug. 28. Srp.-With reference to the letter in your morning contemporary on the subject of the Cenaus, it is to be deeply deplored that the Registrar General was not aware that there is in our midst a true-born Statistician, who could have conducted him along the correct statistical path and saved pore enumerators of the people! Now what is the complaint of our great gan. the statistician, against the Hongkong Re-

Like Homer the great statistician has been nodding, or has not extended his statistical inquiries to the former Ceneus returns of Hongkong. Nodding, with the thermometer at 90' is excumble, but for a statistician, and great one too, to neglect any field of statistical inquiry, especially when he ventures to criticise the cultivators of it, is unpardonable. " Had he been as well acquainted with the history of Census returns in Hongkong as he ought to be he would have known that the senseless head 'at which he gibes ought not to be put on the present Registrar General's shoulders, since it appears in the previous Census returns of this Colony, which returns, it seems to me, the Registrar General was bound to follow as far as possible to enable him to compare them with the returns of the present tish subjects form the second most impor- neighbour of the writer, two or three days Census. FOOCHOW NOTES. (Foochow Echo.)

Foochow, 22nd August. There has been an extraordinary rise lately in the price of pork, chickens and ducks owing to a falling off in supplies. It is said that most of the country people have discovered that the raising of this farm produce has been unprofitable and have been giving it up. Now, perhaps, they will begin again.

We are glad to learn that the Missionary in the Kloug Ning district who was lately threatened with exculsion and only retired to Foochow on the solicitation of his friends, has returned to his post. parting words of a friend to him on his starting to resume his work again were, understand means 'go slow;' very excellent

We hear this week of some few Native Tea Hopgs over the bridge closing their doors for the season. On enquiring as to the reason of their doing so so early, they say that they find so little demand, and that with the reported depressed state of the of the utmost importance also that their London and Australian markets they do not look for improvement. - All natives engaged in the trade are better informed than they used to be, and none are so speculative after late experiences.

Complaints reach us from all sides of the increase of squeezing in the country both on articles of export and import. 'Any man too muchee fear do pigin ' is the expression used to us. Applications have been made to foreign hongs for transit passes by their merest acquaintances amongst the natives, and for merchandize in which they have not the slightest interest. These heipless traders ask whether foreigners cannot interfore on their behalf, but we do not see how this is to be done.

The Viceroy seems animated by the Jacksonian principle, that to the victor belong the spoils, and is accordingly making room for his own favourites in the ofare being made for the celebration of the Tisan festival which will begin to-morrow. Many students too are already gathering for the triennial examinations which are to commence on 10th September. So far, all is quiet, and there sceme be sign of any intention to create further dis turbance. The authorities are on the alert however, and soldiers are still stationed a all the mission compounds. Dr. Macklin was somewhat roughly handled while visiting a patient a few days ago in the southern part of the city. A crowd of rowdies gathered outside the door and began to stir up trouble, but the timely arrival of an officer and sound of soldiers put them to

The frequency of suicids in China has often caused remark. It is shocking to contemplate the headlessness with which his own province. The only objection to people rush out of the world. As an illustration of this, a young bey thirteen years that he came into the service of the State of age apprenticed to a silk weaver, a by purchase, but this proved no bar to his rushed out and drawned himself in the pool behind the house.

POISONOUS OFFICIAL LITERATURE IN CHINA.

Dr Griffith John writes as follows to the

That several other things are practised by Christians; which I consider too vile to print. Mr Richards closes his remarks on the Blue-Books with the following grave reflection: * Thus end the Binc-Books without the slightest acknowledgment of any benefit derived from modern missionaries. They wish to convince their people that Christian Missionaries only come here for mischief, and that the converte ere, the scum of Society ! In face of about a million taels spent annually for the good of China; in face of tens of thousands of patients gratuitously healed annually; of the many valuable books translated; of the tens of thousands of young and old taught; of the pas trop descele, which we are given to hundreds of thousands saved from donth during famines, and of the temb-stones of those who have given their lives for the good of China, this collection of obscenities

The Hunan placards are intended for the multitude : these books are intended for the officials and literary classes. They are to be found in every yamen, and in thousands of private libraries. The Foreign Powers have decided that the Hunan publications shall cease, because they poison the minds of the people. For a still stronger reason they ought to decide that these two books shall cease in their present form, because they poison the minds of the officials and scholars.

> THE DEATH OF CHANG YAU. Commenting on the death of Governor Chang - Yau, which we announced on fuesday last, the N.O. Daily News of 25th inst. says :- The death on Saturday morning of H.E. Chang-yao, Governor of Shantung, in middle life, is a serious blow to the State. Of the eighteen provinces into which China proper is divided, excluding Formous and the New Dominion, there are fifreen which have Governors-General, or Viceroys as we call them, over them, and only three, Honan, Shantung, and Shansi, in which the Governor is the highest authority. Of these three independent Governorships. Shantung is the most important, sand Chang-you was stready almost of viceregal rank, and was mentioned as the most likely candidate for the next vacant Vices royalty. But that he was a Childi man; be would without doubt have bean the successor of H.E. Li Hung-chang himself, but him on the part of the liverary class was employment by the Throne. In Mr Jordan's invaluable List of the Higher Metropolitan and Provincial Anthorities of China his services are stated as u der :--

Commander-in-Chief, Kuangtung, Assistant Admistrator New Dominion Oct. '81. Governor Kunngsi July '85. Governor Shantung June '86. Took office July '86: Assistant Director Board of Admiralty June '88. Chang-yao was a good Givernor, as officials go in China. Ha spent enormous. Sir, -The attention of your readers has sums of money on the Yellow River without, so far as can be seen, doing any publications of Hunan in their special permanent good. He never had the bearing on the recent riots. It cannot but reputation of being more grasping than the be a great relief to every well-wisher of average Chinese high official, nor was he. China to hear that the Foreign Powers reputed to be especially clean-handed. He was classed somewhere between the late and present Viceroys of the Two Kuanz. Those who have read from time to time the letters of our correspondent at Chinsufu done, and that without firing a single shot will remember that Chang-yao's dealings with the missionaries were strictly after the manner of his kind. He evaded their in turn passed them bok to him : and when at last the missionaries appealed to of the high officials, he was one of the few who were specially selected by the Throne for commendation.

The first intimation we had that he was seriously ill came in the letter of our Tientein correspondent of the 17th, which appeared in our columns on Saturday morning. and in which it was mentioned that the Vicercy had despatched his own medical adviser. Dr Irwin, to attend the Governor, an attention which shows how highly Chang-yao was valued by Li Hung-chang. It was only the other day that our Chinanta correspondent mentioned Chang-yao's Harcation for forming an opinion on naval matters was his appointment three years: obviously, however, a report which would be anything but displeasing to his patron,

His death will seem a serious loss to the State because it appears that the Cabinet has very few names on its list of possible Viceroys. The recent appointment of La Han-chang and Lin Kon-yi, both old men who might be fairly considered to have served their time, shows how few are, in the opinion of the Cabinet, available candidates for the highest provincial offices and the man who probably stood first ou the list has now been prematurely removed by death. It is quite possible that our late Taotai, Kung Chao yuan, who has risen repidly through the Judicial Commissionership of Chekiang to the Tressurership of Ezechuan, will be selected to succeed Chang-yeo. He has the recommendation in the Viceroy Lis eyes of being an Anhui
